SPECIAL FEATURES

David Maugin works only 3 hectares of 55 year old vines on a clay limestone soil. The vines produce very low yields, of high quality fruity and are hand harvested then re-selected on the sorting table. It is his exceptional work on the vines guarantees all the expression of the terroir. The wine is aged on fine lees before light filtration.

TASTING NOTES

Blackcurrant leaf and lime flower aromas. Fresh attack on the palate with good balance. Floral, mineral character with ample fruit flavour. Long, fruity, acacia finish.

WINE AT HOME SAYS

Superb expression of the grape from its homeland. This can definitely hold its own against a good Sancerre.
