SPECIAL FEATURES

This absolutely delicious Torrentes comes from the World Gold Medal Argentinian winemaker Fabre Montmayou and is an absolutely perfect example of the grape variety. Grapes are grown at altitude, meaning the grapes are kept cool at night and hand picked at maximum maturity to preserve all the fruit flavours. The grapes undergo 8 hours of skin contact before settling at low temperature again to really preserve all the freshness of the grapes.

TASTING NOTES

Very pale yellow colour with an expressive white flower, blossomy nose with fresh citrus undertones. Delicious harmony between lime, peach and lychee flavours and an elegant, aromatic, fresh finish.

WINE AT HOME SAYS

Our top favourite to pair with anything spicy, particularly mild curries and Thai food, as well as seafood and salads.
