SPECIAL FEATURES

The Truter family are exceptional wine growers, well known across the region for their absolute attention to detail. They've created the perfect conditions for the Chenin grape to thrive, on the granite soils that descend into the Wellington valley. Grapes are de-stemmed, pressed and settled before fermentation. The wine is racked and kept on fine lees for 2 months before bottling. A Wine at Home special.

TASTING NOTES

Pale straw colour, citrus, yellow plum nose with a succulent, fruity mouthfeel and a crisp mineral finish.

WINE AT HOME SAYS

No one ever orders this just once! Great example of the grape in one of its natural homes.
