SPECIAL FEATURES

This elegant Rosé is from the same terroir as the most prestigious of all Provence Rosé at Bandol. It is made with the same grapes, including the well-known Mourvèdre. Vines are farmed with a low yield (30hl/ha) in a biological, organic conversion, certified vineyard, located on the hillside of the medieval village of Le Castellet and close to the sea. All the plots are in terraces. The land is ploughed without weed killers or fertilizers and there are no systematic treatments or insecticides. Manual harvest takes place during the night to retain all the freshness of the grapes.

TASTING NOTES

Traditional, pale pink Provence colour. Complex aromas of peach, apricot, almonds with citrus notes. Clean and elegant intense fruit with a fresh spicy finish.

WINE AT HOME SAYS

No ordinary rosé. This really is a fine wine that can and should be paired with food. Definitely not just for summer!
