SPECIAL FEATURES

Denis Bouchacourt has just one plot of land at 270m altitude on the steep slope of the Soltré rock. Low density and small yields on his 35 year old wines go into this stunning classic. Fully organic farming methods are used and all the work on the vines is carried out by hand. The grapes are allowed to ferment until all the sugar has turned to alcohol, leaving no residual sugar in the wine. The wine matures on lees in vats and there is no filtration before bottling. No oak.

TASTING NOTES

Elegant tropical fruit, peachy, pear nose. A fresh mineral attack on the palate, filled with complex ripe lychee, apricot and dried fruit character. A delicate mineral finish with well-balanced fruit.
