SPECIAL FEATURES

Recently awarded the Best World Winemaker of Red Wine, as well as a host of other awards including best Argentinian winery, the Decanter Malbec Gold Trophy and exceptionally high rating from Tim Atkins, Robert Parker, Jancis Robinson, and James Suckling. Fabre Montmayou pioneered the making of single varietal wine from Malbec grapes with 45-year-old vines, grapes hand-harvested and transported in trays to the cellar to avoid damage. Fermentation with natural yeast and a 30-day maceration period before being aged for 12 months in French oak.

AWARDS

Multi award winning, Gold Trophy Decanter 2020.

TASTING NOTES

Deep Malbec red with a light purple rim. Complex black pepper, blackcurrant, nutmeg, vanilla and paprika nose with a sweet morello cherry, liquorice, spice and chocolate palate. Beautifully well balanced. Persistent, elegant finish with smooth tannins.
