SPECIAL FEATURES

The wine consultant at this superb Croatian vineyard is the internationally renowned Michel Rolland. The vineyard is planted in upright cordons with low density planting to ensure the grapes benefit from full sun and sea breezes. There is a green harvest to thin the grapes, allowing them to develop more slowly, gathering intensity of flavour in the face of the long warm days. They are protected from extreme heat by the constant, cool sea breezes. The grapes are harvested and cooled to 5 degrees in cooling rooms overnight, before being sorted by hand on the sorting tables. The wine is fermented and matured in large concrete tanks for 6 months - and bottled without filtration. The wine is not aged in wood. Exceptionally fresh.

TASTING NOTES

Fresh, ripe apricot and mango nose and a multi-layered palate of ripe fruit, peaches, pineapple, honeysuckle and chamomile. Persistent finish.
