SPECIAL FEATURES

New to WAH, this light and fruity Rose de Loire is made using sustainable viticulture on small 3 hectare plots near the village of Faye-d'Anjou, south of Angers. Grapes are hand harvested at full ripeness and production methods are entirely traditional.

TASTING NOTES

Bright salmony pink colour with lots of blackcurrant leaf and violets on the nose. Fresh attack on the palate with good balance. Plenty of light red berry fruits matched by a delicate floral, mineral character and a fresh, pleasant finish.
