SPECIAL FEATURES

The Jamet family has been farming their land on the right bank of the Loire, near Saumur, for four generations. One of the first wines we imported into the UK over 20 years ago, the Jamet family represent everything we love about this business. The old alluvial sand so familiar in the area are worked with enormous attention to detail using traditional methods, low intervention and sustainable viticulture with organic products. No oak. The pure fruit goes into the bottle. Elegant and beautifully light red, delicious served lightly chilled.

AWARDS

92 points Andreas Larsson, Guide Hachette 2017/2020,
Gold Medal Gilbert & Gaillard, 87 points DVE guide.

TASTING NOTES

Bright ruby purple red with a distinctive strawberry, cherry nose. Concentrated, elegant, smooth and delicate with ripe red berry fruits, undercut with mushroom and red peppercorns. Elegant, fruity finish with soft tannins.

WINE AT HOME SAYS

Roast chicken would not be the same without it. One of the first wines we imported and that is still made by the same family. Cabernet Franc at home.
