SPECIAL FEATURES

Grower Bruno Gigondan runs his vineyard with absolute respect for the environment, using a wild or 'abandoned' style of viticulture as well as a system of de-mineralised rainwater, to provide perfect organic, natural growing conditions for his 65 year old vines. All the work on the vines is done by hand and the grapes undergo a long fermentation period to extract all of the flavour of the fruit.

TASTING NOTES

Deep purple, expressive, ripe black fruit with violets and spice on the nose. Ripe blackberry, black pepper and rosemary palate and a long, fruit and spice finish.
