SPECIAL FEATURES

Made by Herve Fabre, Winner of the 2021 Winemaking Legend award (Tim Atkin). All the work on the vines is carried out by hand at this award winning vineyard in the Argentinian hills of Mendoza near the village of Vistalba. The vines undergo a 'green harvest' in December to remove excess leaves and buds to provide maximum sunlight and strength to the remaining fruit, allowing them to develop to full maturity. Grapes have 8 hours of skin contact before gentle pressing and settling at low temperatures to preserve all the aromas.

TASTING NOTES

Expressive white flowers and fresh citrus flavours. Lime, peach and lychee palate with good natural acidity and an aromatic, elegant and exceptionally fresh finish.

WINE AT HOME SAYS

Torrentes is an often underrated grape variety that is well suited to the Argentine climate. A delight to drink on its own as well or with a range of vegetables, salads and fish. Works well with slightly spicy dishes too.
